DESCRIBE THE PRESENT AND ORIGINAL (IF KNOWN) PHYSICAL APPEARANCE

This house attached to its neighbors to the north is a one and a half story, four bay log structure covered with German Siding. It stands on the west side of South Artizan Street. Windows have two over two pane double hung sashes and are trimmed with flat topped architraves which probably date from the early 20th century. The off-center entrance is located in the third bay from the south end. A brick chimney extends from inside the north end wall. The roof is covered with standing seam sheet metal. The house would appear to date from the early 19th century.
